

Guide Roll extractor – Equipment for changing guide rolls

The guide roll extractor was created as a direct result of our personnel's many years of experience. When changing a guide roll it is often necessary to cut the wire. This is an expensive and time consuming operation. With the guide roll extractor there is no need to cut the wire and you save both time and money!

The length, diameter and capacity of the guide roll extractor are fitted to the customer's requirements.